18.2.2. The Committee, or any Officers authorised by them, shall have the power to give orders for goods to be supplied and work to be done as may be necessary for carrying out the purposes of the Club, but nothing in this Rule shall empower the Committee to incur expenditure except such as is consistent with the purposes for which the Club is established. No member shall by virtue of his appointment have power to order goods or dispose of the assets of the Club.

18.3. Payments to Members of the Committee. A member of the Committee may not:

18.3.1. supply goods (including intoxicating liquor) to the Club for payment;

18.3.2. enter into a contract for work to be done for the Club;

18.3.3. other than an appointed Treasurer or Club Secretary, hold any position of salary or profit paid by the Club.

18.3. 4. Honoraria.

18.3.4.1. Officers (other than the Club Secretary and Treasurer appointed from outside the Club membership) may receive such honorarium as the members at each AGM decide. The sums awarded being referred to the relevant authorities for deductions, if any, and declarations on the Club and individual tax returns.

18.3.4.2. The level of Honoraria must be determined at the AGM by the Club Members.

18.4. Conduct of Committee Meetings.

18.4.1. Frequency. The Committee shall meet at least once per month for general business.

18.4.2. The Chairman, or in his absence the Vice-Chairman or President, or in their absence a Chairman elected by the Committee present shall take the chair at meetings of the Committee.

18.4.3. Voting. The quorum of the Committee shall consist of at least fifty percent (50%) of the total membership of the Committee eligible to vote (minimum of four). Each member of the Committee shall have one vote only. Except where otherwise provided in these Rules motions shall be decided by a simple majority of those present and voting. In the event of a tied vote, motions shall be deemed to be lost.

18.4.4. Rescinding a Resolution. No resolution of the Committee shall be rescinded unless notice to rescind has been given at the previous meeting and all members of the Committee informed accordingly.

18.4.5. Minutes. Minutes of all meetings of the Committee shall be taken by the Club Secretary (or in the Secretaries absence a person appointed by the Committee). The Club Secretary shall ensure the minutes of the meetings to be retained for at least seven years.

18.5. Vacation of Office. Committee members will vacate their office:

18.5.1. upon removal from office under Rule 20;

18.5.2. upon cessation of membership of the Club under Rule 12;

18.5.3. upon suspension under Rule 22;

18.5.4. upon resignation submitted to the Club Secretary in writing;

18.5.5. upon suspension or expulsion of membership from the RBL, a successful appeal against the offence during the period of elected service shall enable the member to continue Committee service;

18.5.6. upon death.

18.6. Vacancies. In the event of a vacancy arising amongst the members of the Committee, the Committee shall have the power to co-opt an eligible member (see Rule 19.4) to fill the vacancy until the next ballot held under Rule 19; the co-opted period shall not continue beyond the next annual election.

18.7. Sub-Committees. The Committee may appoint sub-committees (A Finance Sub-Committee shall be appointed), who shall be answerable to the Committee only, and all monies voted for the use of or received by the sub-committee shall be dealt with in accordance with Rule 17.5.4 and 17.5.5

18.8. Finance Sub-Committee.

18.8.1. The Club Committee shall, at the first meeting following each election, appoint a Finance sub-Committee. It shall consist of three Club Members or appointed individuals who are not Officers, one of whom must be on the Club Committee and one shall act as Chairman. At meetings of the Finance Sub-Committee the Club Secretary and Treasurer are to be in attendance in a non voting capacity. Other Officers may attend such meetings but take no part in the proceedings unless requested to do so by the chairman of the meeting.

18.8.2. It shall be the duty of the Finance sub-Committee:

18.8.2.1. to monitor the financial performance of the Club

18.8.2.2. to arrange for stocktaking on the first convenient day of each month either by themselves or by an agent duly appointed for that purpose;

18.8.2.3. to check all demands for payment with the order book of the Club, and with the delivery notes and invoices;

18.8.2.4. to report to the Committee whether such stock records agree with the returns made to the Club by the Steward, and whether the demands for payment are correct;

18.8.2.5. to see that the vouchers are produced by the Club Secretary for all payments made by him or by order of the Committee;

18.8.2.6. to check whether the Club Secretary's cash record is correct and up to date. The amount being reconciled with the Treasurer's records and bank statements of Club accounts;

18.8.2.7. to present to the monthly meeting of the Committee up to date records.

18.8.3 Unelected sub-committee members have no voting rights on the Club committee.

18.8.4. The proceedings of the Finance sub-Committee shall be recorded by the Club Secretary in a minute book kept for that purpose. All cheques drawn upon Club Accounts shall be signed by at least one officer and a member of the Financial Sub Committee, both being authorised signatories.

18.9. Fidelity Insurance. All Officers, Committee members and employees of the Club whose duties may involve them in the handling of Club money or stock must be insured under an insurance policy which protects the Club against dishonesty and fraud. The premium shall be paid by the Club.

19. Conduct of Elections

19.1. Procedure. The election of officers and the Committee shall be carried out in the following order:

19.1.1. First for the position of Chairman, then Vice Chairman and President followed by the Committee, all of which shall be by ballot.

19.1.2. A member may be nominated for more than one position but may hold no more than one. Once a member is elected, then that person's name must be removed from all other ballot papers.

19.1.3. In the event that an elected member declines to accept that particular office, then a fresh ballot must be held.

19.1.4. Each Member of the Club shall have one vote for each vacancy.

19.2. Ballots

19.2.1. Ballots shall be held either during the AGM or during the fourteen days following the AGM.

19.2.2. Ballots held during the fourteen days following the AGM shall remain open for at least three hours on the evenings of two consecutive days.

19.3. Scrutineers

19.3.1. Ballots shall be carried out under the directions of the Committee by three scrutineers appointed by the Members at the AGM. Scrutineers shall not be candidates or officers.

19.3.2. The Scrutineers shall, at the conclusion of the ballot, seal up the ballot papers, if applicable, and hand them to the Club Secretary, who shall retain them for seven days.

19.3.3. A scrutiny shall take place if a written demand is presented to the Club Secretary within seven days from the close of the ballot, signed by not less than one-tenth of the Members of the Club, and a scrutiny shall be carried out by three different scrutineers, to be named by the outgoing Committee, and their decision shall be final.

19.4. Eligibility.

19.4.1. Any RBL Club Member (giving consent) shall be eligible for nomination for the Committee on completion of six months membership of the Club. All persons nominated to serve as elected Officers of the Club must have completed a qualifying period of committee service as determined by the members and ratified by the Committee in the Club byelaws.

19.4.2. Nominees must be proposed and seconded by two Members who must sign the nomination sheet. Nominators must have completed six months membership within the Club.

19.5. Nominations.

19.5.1. At least fourteen days before the day fixed for any ballot, a nomination sheet shall be posted prominently on the Club premises by the Club Secretary, on which the names of all candidates for any position must be entered.

19.5.2. This sheet shall remain open until twenty-four hours prior to the AGM, if the ballot is to be held at that meeting, or until the expiration of at least twenty-four hours following the AGM, if the ballot is to be held during the fourteen days following the date of the AGM.

19.6. Results of Ballots. The results of ballots shall be made known within twenty four hours of the close of the ballot, by posting a notice on the Club notice-board, attested by the signatures of the scrutineers recording the number of votes polled by each candidate and indicating which of the candidates are elected, the candidates receiving the highest number of votes being those elected, except as detailed in rule 19.7.

19.7. Resolution of Difficulties. Should the ballot result in two or more candidates receiving an equal number of votes for the last or only vacancy or vacancies in a particular post, the names of such candidates shall be written on slips of paper, which shall be placed so that the names are concealed, and the President, or in his absence a person appointed by the scrutineers, shall then draw as many slips as there are vacancies to be filled, and the members whose names are so drawn shall be declared duly elected.

20. Removal from Office

20.1. The Committee or any member or members thereof, including the elected officers, may be removed by the votes of two thirds of the members present and voting at an SGM called for that purpose.

20.2. In the event of the removal or the resignation of the whole or majority of the Committee, the Club Secretary shall obtain nominations and arrange for holding a ballot, (see Rule 19.4) and the result shall be declared to an SGM to be called by the Club Secretary.

20.3. The time and notices required by rule 16 for special general meetings shall not apply in this case, but three days shall be allowed for nominations, the ballot shall be held on the succeeding three days and the SGM held within three days of the close of the ballot.

21. Misconduct of Members

21.1. No gaming (other than that permitted by law), drunkenness, prohibited items/substances, bad language or other misconduct shall be permitted on the Club's premises including the grounds and appurtenance thereof of any premises belonging to the Club or TRBL or on any Club or TRBL website or social media site.

21.2. Any officer or member of the Committee, or any person duly authorised by the Committee shall have power to order the immediate withdrawal from the Club's premises (including the aforesaid grounds, appurtenances and premises) of any Member contravening the provisions of rule 21 and the Member may be dealt with by the Committee under rule 22.

21.3. Such a member shall have no right of re-entry to the Club premises, until attending a meeting of the Committee, at their request, except that the member may attend appropriate Branch business meetings, but not make any purchases in the Club and should leave the Club premises immediately after the Branch meeting. Such members shall be eligible for nomination to the Committee, should the AGM fall within the period he is being denied access to the Club.

21.4. If the next ordinary meeting of the Committee be within less than three days, the member may claim to appear before them at that meeting and to have his case dealt with, waiving the length of notice required by the said rule 22 if applicable.

22. Disciplinary Powers of the Committee

22.1. The Club must adopt a formal disciplinary procedure which shall be posted on the Club notice board.

22.2. The Committee shall have power to reprimand, suspend (for not less than 3 months nor more than 12 months), or expel any member who shall infringe any rule, or whose conduct, whether within or without the Club premises shall in their opinion, bring the name of the RBL Club or TRBL into discredit.

22.3. No member shall be reprimanded, suspended or expelled without being given an opportunity to be heard by the Committee and to advance a defence. Any Committee member having any conflict of interest shall not participate in this process.

22.4. A majority of two thirds of the Committee then present and voting shall be required to determine whether:

22.4.1. The member is guilty or not guilty of the charge of misconduct.

22.4.2. To reprimand, suspend or expel the member from the Club.

22.5. Every member required to appear before the committee under this rule (Rule 22) shall receive at least seven clear days written notice from the Club Secretary and the appearance shall normally be within 28 days of the alleged offence.

22.6. Notice shall be sent in writing which shall be deemed to have been received two days following the dispatch of the notice, for the purpose of giving notice to the member. In the event that the Member fails to attend the meeting without notifying the Club Secretary of substantial mitigating circumstances e.g. sickness or holiday then the meeting may take place in their absence and an award made.

22.7. The decision of the Committee shall be notified by the Club Secretary in writing to the member within seven days of the Committee Meeting.

22.8. A suspended member shall remain liable to pay his subscription but shall not be permitted to use any of the facilities of the Club or take any part in the affairs of the Club.

22.9. The Club Secretary shall invalidate the Club Membership for the suspended period.

22.10. Following a period of suspension the Member shall return to full privileges.

23 Appeals

23.1. The decision of the Committee under rule 22 shall be final, unless any member who is, suspended or expelled, shall, within twenty-eight days of having been notified in writing of the decision of the Committee, lodge an appeal to the Club Secretary stating clearly the grounds for appeal.

23.2. A member, suspended or expelled shall have the right to appeal only to the independent Club arbitrators via the Club Secretary. The commencement of the appeal proceedings shall be held within 28 days of the lodging of the appeal unless there are substantial mitigating circumstances e.g. the appellant is unable to attend through sickness or holiday.

23.3. Arbitrators may not be members or employees of the Club but shall be people of standing in the community e.g. elected councillors, JPs or retired members of the police force. Branch members who are not members of the Club or Club/Branch members of another local Club/branch may also act as arbitrators.

23.3.1. Where possible, three arbitrators should be appointed although a single such arbitrator may hear an appeal. Such persons should be conversant with the registered Club rules, and the requirements for disciplinary appeal proceedings. Arbitrators are to be appointed annually at the AGM. Retiring arbitrators shall be eligible for re-appointment.

23.3.2. Application for arbitration must be supported by a deposit of £50. The administration costs of the arbitration shall be determined by the arbitrators and any remaining money returned to the appellant after the hearing.

23.3.3. The findings of the appeal shall be reported to the Club Chairman and the accused/appellant in writing within seven days of the proceedings. The decision of the arbitrators shall be final.

24. Disputes

24.1. Disputes being the subject of disciplinary proceedings under rules 22 and 23 shall not be covered under this rule.

24.1.1. Between a Member and an Officer / Member of the Club. All disputes between a member and another member / Officer of the Club shall, unless the Committee elect to refer the matter directly to arbitration (and accept funding the arbitration process), be settled by the Committee. The decision of the Committee shall be final, unless any party aggrieved thereby shall, within seven days, produce to the Club Secretary notice of appeal where upon the decision shall be reviewed by the arbitrators as per Rule 23.

24.1.2. Between a Member and the Club. All disputes between a member, or person aggrieved who has ceased to be a member, and the Club, shall be referred direct to arbitration, where upon the decision shall be determined by the arbitrators as per Rule 23. The decision of the arbitrators shall be final

25. Inspection of Records by Members

25.1. Rights of Inspection. Any member or person having an interest in the funds shall have the right after giving seven days written notice, to inspect (but not take away or copy) at the registered office, the records of account and records containing the names of the members of the Club, including all the particulars in the duplicate register of members (as per rule 11.2), at all reasonable times. It shall be the duty of the Club Secretary to produce the same for inspection accordingly. Inspection of the loan account may be carried out only by an officer of the Club or person specially authorised by a resolution of the Committee.

25.2 Discretionary. A member may, at the discretion of the Committee, on giving seven clear days prior notice of his reason in writing to the Club Secretary, inspect the minutes of any meeting of the Committee. The minutes may not be considered a true record of proceedings until accepted at a subsequent GM (e.g. the minutes of a AGM become a formal record on acceptance at the next AGM).

26. Annual Returns

26.1. Financial Year. The financial year of the Club shall run from the 1st of [ENTER MONTH] to 30th of [ENTER MONTH].

26.2 Statutory Returns.

26.2.1. Every year, within seven months of the Club's financial year end, the Club shall submit to the FCA, the completed form AR30, or any other form / document required by the FCA together with:

26.2.1.1. a copy of the report of the auditor on the Club's accounts for the period included in the return or with a copy of such other report (if any) as is required by statute for such period;

26.2.1.2. a copy of each balance sheet made during that period and of the report (if any) of the auditor or other appropriate person on that balance sheet as required by statute.

26.3. Royal British Legion Returns.

26.3.1. The Club shall submit an annual return direct to Head Office of TRBL, to continue to hold a RBL Club Licence on the Form provided by Head Office with a copy of the Club's annual/audited Club Accounts and Accountants Report and any other documents requested by Head Office.

26.3.2. The deadline for submission of TRBL Return will be stipulated by TRBL Head Office annually.

26.3.3. The Club is bound by the conditions contained within TRBL Club Licence. The Licence is to be displayed in a prominent position within the Club.

27. Audit

27.1. The members shall vote annually, as allowed by section 84 of the Co-operative and Community Benefit Societies Act 2014, at the Annual General Meeting, to have, when necessary in law or where the membership requires:

27.1.1. an audit carried out by a qualified auditor; (Mandatory for turnover in preceding year in excess of £10.2M or total assets in excess of £5.1M)

27.1.2. an accountant's report by a qualified auditor; (Mandatory for turnover in preceding year in excess of £90k but did not exceed £10.2M. Total assets below £5.1M)

27.1.3. or unaudited accounts; (Turnover in preceding year below £90k. Total assets below £5.1M)

27.1.4. or such other figures prescribed by law.

27.2. If a full audit or a report is required, a person who is a qualified auditor under section 91 of the Co-operative and Community Benefit Societies Act 2014 shall be appointed. The qualified auditors, if so appointed, shall not be officers committee members or employees of the Club and nor shall they be partners of, or in the employment of, or employ, an officer or committee member of the Club.

27.3. If the membership votes for unaudited accounts, the society's income/expenditure ledger shall be scrutinised by the secretary and committee members only and signed, as a true record, by the secretary and two committee members or any other number as may be required by legislation. An income/expenditure report will be prepared to present to the Club's member at each Annual General Meeting.

27.4. Display of Balance Sheet. The Club shall keep a copy of the latest balance sheet together with the financial report, displayed in a conspicuous place at the registered office.

28. Surplus

28.1. An AGM may resolve to apply the whole or any part of the surplus in any of the following ways:

28.1.1. for providing for the redemption of the loan capital;

28.1.2. in the interests generally of the RBL and the welfare of ex-service personnel;

28.1.3. for any other lawful purpose, subject to rule 29 and in support of the objects under rule 1.

29. Application of Funds

29.1. Except as interest on loans, no profits or funds of the Club shall be distributed among the Members other than in pursuance of the provisions of rule 28.

30. Investments

30.1. The Committee may invest the funds of the Club in or upon any security, being a security in which trustees are for the time being authorised by law to invest for which purposes the Trustee Act 2000 or any Act or Acts amending or in substitution for the same and for the time being in force shall apply as if the Club were a trustee and its funds were trust property; but not otherwise.

31. Loans and Loan Stock

31.1. Loans.

31.1.1. The Committee may obtain advances of money for the purposes of the Club from members or others on bonds, or agreements, or promissory notes, or from members only on certificates in respect of indebtedness of loan stock as provided hereafter. The total amount so obtained shall not exceed £100,000.

31.1.2. The Committee may take any such loan on such terms as to the rate and manner of repayment as it thinks fit; but terms as to the rate of interest agreed to be given on any such advance shall not exceed 5 per cent, per annum or 2 per cent, per annum, above the base lending rate of the Bank which the Club has its main account, whichever is the higher (except monies borrowed by way of a bank loan or overdraft or by way of a mortgage of the Club's premises).

31.1.3. Any bond of the Club may be made a specific charge upon any property of the Club specified therein or in any schedule thereto, but a separate register shall be kept of all such bonds. All such bonds and other documents shall be made in such form and shall be signed on account of the Club by such persons as the Committee may from time to time direct.

31.1.4. The Club shall not receive monies on deposit.

31.2 Loan Stock. Any amount of loan stock for sums of 50 pence, or multiples thereof, being within the total limit mentioned in the preceding rule, may be issued by the Committee to members only subject to the conditions following:

31.2.1. It shall not confer a right to demand payment of the principal from the Club, unless the interest be not paid within one month of a demand made in writing;

31.2.2. it shall be evidenced by certificates of indebtedness under the hands of two members of the Committee and the Club Secretary, stating the amount of loan stock standing to the credit of the respective holders.

31.2.3. it shall bear interest at a rate not exceeding the rate prescribed in rule 30.1.

31.2.4. the Club Secretary shall keep a register of the holders of loan stock for the time being containing such particulars as the Committee may from time to time direct.

31.3. Transfer of Loan Stock.

31.3.1. A certificate of loan stock may be transferred by a form containing such particulars as the Committee may direct.

31.1.2. A fee of 5 pence shall be paid by the transferor upon each transfer. A register of all transfers, containing such particulars as the Committee may direct, shall be kept but no transfer shall be registered unless it is properly stamped, or if made by a member indebted to the Club, without special order of the Committee.

31.1.3. Until the transfer of loan stock is registered no right shall be acquired against the Club by the transferee, nor shall any claim of the Club upon the transferor be affected.

31.4. Repayment of Loan Stock.

31.4.1. Subject to the payment of, or a sufficient provision for, all subsisting claims on the Club, the Committee may from time to time apply any monies which they cannot profitably invest, to pay off the loan stock holders in the order in which they are entered on the register, or in exceptional circumstances in such order as the Committee may decide.

31.4.2. If a loan stock holder, who has received notice that the Committee is prepared to pay him off, leaves the sum to be thus repaid in the hands of the Club, he shall not be entitled to any interest thereon after the expiration of the time named in the notice of repayment.

32. Nominations, and Proceedings on Death or Bankruptcy

32.1. Upon a claim being made by the personal representative of a deceased member or the trustee in bankruptcy to any property in the Club belonging to the deceased or bankrupt member, the Committee shall transfer or pay such property to which the personal representative or trustee in bankruptcy who has become entitled as the personal representative or trustee in bankruptcy he or she may direct.

32.2. A member may in accordance with the law nominate any person or persons to whom (subject to the provisions of the law as to amount and the persons to whom a valid nomination may be made) any of his property in the Club at the time of his death shall be transferred. On receiving satisfactory proof of death of a member who has made a nomination the Committee shall if and to the extent that the nomination is valid under the law either transfer or pay in accordance with the law the full value of the property comprised in the nomination to the person entitled thereunder.

33. Disaffiliation

33.1. The Club may disaffiliate from the RBL only by written consent of three-fourths (75%) of the registered members defined in Rule 7, who are eligible to vote on disaffiliation as per rule 33.3.

33.2. The written consent is in the form of a signed ballot paper clearly showing the vote for disaffiliation, member(s) name(s), signature(s) and RBL membership number(s). All ballot papers will be audited by the local RCRM and/or MSO.

33.3. Only those members who have been members of the Club for a minimum of three consecutive years prior to the vote taking place may vote to disaffiliate from the RBL.

33.4. Following the vote, the disaffiliation recommendation form must be submitted by TRBL County where the Club is located to the Membership Council through Clubs Administration.

34. Dissolution

34.1 The Club may at any time be dissolved by the consent of three-fourths (75%) of the registered members defined in Rule 7.

34.2 Voting is to be testified by their signatures to an Instrument of Dissolution in the form provided, via the FCA, by the Act or under any regulations in that behalf, or by winding up in a manner provided for by the Act.

34.3. On dissolution, the proceeds of a sale of property and accumulated assets to be conveyed to a like society with objects as determined in Rule 1 or the RBL or other charity as determined by a member vote at a General Meeting and may not be distributed to members.
